Summer 2017

Headliners catering director,
McKinnon Morton, with Sara and Dick Rathgeber.

It was a true red, white and blue gathering for the Matthews family: (l to r front row) Madison, Marlowe and

Miss Everly Bown (granddaughter of Sharon Watkins) was thrilled with her unicorn.

It was the first 4th of July for new members Molly, Janis, Leonard and Claire Smith.

Billy and Shelia Busch were happy to spend time with son Sheldon and daughter-in-law Claire who gave birth to baby William Townsend Busch shortly after the party.

Greta Goldsby and her daughter danced to DJ Timo's fun tunes.

Eva Gayle and George Gibbs chose to stay in for a night of fun at the Headliners Club.

Good friends, good food, and good wine equals good times for George and Donna Shipley with Bud Shivers (center).

Kids' Movie Nights

There is nothing like a summer movie to get the little kids up for summer, popcorn and lots of Shirley Temples and Roy Rogers.

It doesn't get much better for Justin Dunlap then to spend movie night with his daughter Lyle.

Grace Margaret was mesmerized by the movie and happy to be with her parents Jenny and Brad Sappington.

Melania McDaniel was thrilled her mother Melanie could join her for movie night.

Adair Metschan (right) had an extra good time with her friend Cannon Marks.

Lee and Anna Phillips are now regular movie night attenders.

A movie night first for the Venditti family: Eric, Eleanor and Carey.

Katherine, Sebastian, Matt and Oliver Gallagher were super ready to watch "Sing."

It was Maddie's first movie night with her parents, Sterling and Catherine Howry.

Ellis and Bowen Heiser had a great night out with grandparents Becky and Rob Heiser.

Ann Dunaway, Genevieve Willett and Ashley Dunaway- best friends at the movies.

Quinn Ellmer with her mom, JoAnn had fun sitting on the floor and watching the movie.

Donna Thomas could not imagine a nicer night than being with her grandson.

Owen Peek, Shane-David Willett, Jacob Willett and Owen Marmion were ready for supper, popcorn and a movie.

Ava Ellmer says broccoli is good food!

Grayson Howry had as much fun looking out the window as watching the movie.

Kay Stowell brought her favorite little ones to Moana and the girls dressed for the occasion. Shannon Horton, with Parker and Emma Horton, and Kay Stowell.

The moms
Sharon
Hubbard and Martha Dyess with their very cute daughters
Charlotte
Hubbard and Kate Dyess.

The Peters all showed up for a family outing: Meryl, Alan, Camden, Nolan, Mabry and Sarah.

Otsie Stowell tried so hard to touch the screen, but just couldn't do it. Maybe next year.

Honors

Sharon Watkins was honored as one of the Texas Restaurant Association's Restaurateurs of the Year. She was nominated by other TRA members and elected by members of the board in the Austin Chapter. Every year, restaurateurs around the state are honored for work in their communities, leadership success, and entrepreneurial spirit.

Longtime Headliner Chuck Nash received a unique honor, Exit 208 on the southbound lanes of Interstate 35 in San Marcos has officially been renamed the "Chuck Nash Loop." This honors Nash's commitment to the San Marcos community and his legacy of service. photo credit San Marcos Daily Record / Denise Cathey

Celebrations

Headliners would like to congratulate several members on milestone occasions:

Mindy Ellmer and Charlie Geren exchanged vows in the State Capitol on June 1.

Happy 60th Anniversary to Mary Ann and DeLoss Dodds!

Paige Burton and Kelly Barnes tied the knot in Keeneland in Lexington, Kentucky on August 12th.

◆ A MOMENT IN HISTORY ◆

In memory of Governor Mark White and his contributions to and participation in the Headliners Club.

Governor White with Linda Gale White at the Headliners gala in 1985.

Governor White presented the Headliners Foundation's Outstanding Journalism Awards in 1986.

Governor White congratulates concert pianist James Dick as Headliners Musician of the Year in 1983.

Headliner's 60th Anniversary was a non-partisan coming together of friends: Diane Land, Mayor Steve Adler, Congressman Michael McCaul, Linda McCaul and Governor Mark White.

Governor White (right) was always happy to participate in good political events. Seen here with U.S. Senator from Montana Jon Tester and former Lt. Governor Ben Barnes.

A night to remember - The Headliners Club's 60th Anniversary - featuring Anchors Dan Rather and Neal Spelce, with Chief Meteorologist Mark White and Sportscaster Verne Lundquist.
